Some Unproductive Exercises

Beating around the bush.
Jumping to conclusions.
Passing the buck.
Throwing your weight around.
Patting yourself on the back.
Stirring up trouble.
Spreading gossip and rumor.
Adding fuel to the fire.
Dodging the issues.
Sidestepping responsibility.

Flying off the handle.
Grasping at straws.
Climbing the walls.
Running around in circles.
Jumping on the bandwagon.
Holding back on commitment.
Falling by the wayside.
Practicing deceit.
Pushing others aside.
Climbing the social ladder.

Digging in your heels.
Dragging your feet.
Carrying a grudge.
Driving an argument into the ground.
Sticking your nose where it doesn't belong.
Straining gnats.
Bending over backwards to get along.
Backing up when the Lord pushes you forward.
Leading someone astray.
Stepping on others to get ahead.

"For bodily exercise profits a little, but godliness is profitable for all things, having promise of the life that now is and of that which is to come." 1Timothy 4:8

SOCIAL DISTANCING

To start off this article, I was going to make up a joke about social distancing, but this was as close as I could get! (Give it some thought, it will come to you.)

Now that we are starting to get more and more out into society, we are asked to pay special attention to the social distancing measures that are in place. This is to prevent viral contraction of COVID-19 and becoming infected. The recommended distance to stay away from others is 6 feet. This is common sense.

There is another "social distancing" that God wants us to do. He wants us to social (and private) distance from sin. God knows that if we get too close to sin's fire, we will get burned. Satan wants us to sin and turn our backs on God. That's why he tempts us so – for he knows that temptation can lead to sin and sin to spiritual death (James 1:14-15). That's why God wants us to practice social distancing from sin – so that we do not become spiritually infected. The Bible is replete in warning us to practice social distancing from sin:

"Do not enter the path of the wicked, and do not walk in the way of evil. Avoid it, do not travel on it; turn away from it and pass on." (Pro. 4:14-15).

"For this you know, that no fornicator, unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, has any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God...Therefore do not be partakers with them." (Eph. 5:5-7)

"And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness" (Eph. 5:11).

"Do not...share in other people's sins" (1 Tim. 5:22)

"Flee also youthful lusts" (2 Tim. 2:22)

"Abstain from every form of evil." (1 Thess. 5:22)
