"My fitness watch counts my steps, calories, heart beats, reps and excuses."

He Missed the Target and Ricocheted All Over the Assembly

The preacher took his text from James 3:6-9. "And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell ... Therewith bless we God and therewith curse we men." He poured it on the whisperers, the backbiters, the inventors of evil things, and the sowers of discord, the murmurers, the gossipers, and the talebearers. There was a gossiping, trouble making loudmouth in the church. The preacher called him out (without naming him by name) in the sermon hoping he would repent.

After the service was over a cloud of smoke hung from the ceiling of the church auditorium. One sister came out trembling and said to the preacher, "I didn't think you would get so personal with me about what I have been saying." An elderly gentleman then came to the preacher and was heard to say, "I'll not be back!" Another came and shook the preacher's hand and replied: "I didn't know you heard what I said at the job last Friday. You must have been eavesdropping." Then a red-faced member came out and said with a sharp voice: "I have never been so humiliated in my life. I came here to worship God. But you have made me feel like a heel."

Then the real culprit came out. He let out a big laugh and grabbed the preacher with one hand and slapped his back with the other and commented: Preacher, you deserve a raise. They really needed that one!"

On his way home, the preacher shook his head and was heard to mutter: "I missed the target and ricocheted all over the assembly."
