Go the Extra Mile

Near the entrance of Gethsemane, Jesus left eight of the apostles and then took Peter, James, and John closer to the place where He was to pray. He left this “inner circle” and “...went a little further, and fell on His face, and prayed” (Matt.26:39). He went further than others—He always did—and told us to do the same. In the Sermon on the Mount, He talked about going beyond where others would go. When compelled by a Roman soldier to carry supplies for a mile, Jesus said we should go a greater distance and carry it two (Matt.5:41). If someone thinks he needs our tunic, Jesus said we should go the greater distance and give him our outer garment as well. He went further, and so should we.

Think of the application this has in every area of our lives. When we see how the world lives with its measure of morality, we should do more. The ungodly do good to those who do good to them, but Christians return blessing for cursing, good for ill treatment and prayers for those who prey on us (Matt.5:44). He went further, and so should we!

Christian husbands and wives need to go further in the way we treat our mates than anyone else on this earth. Love does not wait until a spouse treats us with kindness. Christians go further, and they go further first! Christian parents go further with how they deal with their children than those in the world. Christian children go further in honoring their parents than their friends at school do to their parents. Remember that Jesus went further and so should we!

Christians go further in the workplace than their fellow workers. The Bible uses the term “eyeservice” to describe those who work only when the eyes of their employers see them. Christians do not give eye-service—they go further (Eph.6:6). They also work just as diligently for good bosses as they do for unkind ones (1Pet.2:18). Our Lord went further, and so should we.

Now, take this principle and make it part of our life and part of the life in our family. Going further than others expect will change us and will brighten the light we shine. It will also shock those around you. They likely have never met someone who goes the extra mile. Perhaps they will even see us as part of a church that practices this lifestyle and be led to become part of this great family. Why not take a moment right now and think of what we did yesterday or today where we could have done more? Do not ever forget. Jesus went further...and so should we!
