Karl was sooo excited to receive his mail order FAITH but soon realized.. this was not rocket science.

What Kind of Faith Do You Have?

The Way of Jesus Christ does not tailor its plan to the ambition or desire of the disciple. God has but one plan. We do not opt for different levels, types, or models of faith. There is but "one faith" Ephesians 4:3. God shows us what that one faith is (and is not) and how we can acquire and nourish it.

- Faith is not secret, as the gospel of John shows us. Faith declares itself. Faith cannot keep quiet, but is always confessing and professing the Lord, 2 Corinthians 4:13; Galatians 1:23.
- Faith is not ignorant. Faith and knowledge go together, 2 Peter 3:13. In fact, the Bible speaks of "the faith" as that body of truths that must be accepted and proclaimed, 1 Timothy 4:1; Jude 3. To be saved, faith must believe certain truths, Hebrews 11:6.
- Faith is not inactive. Rather, it cannot be still, Acts 14:22. It must be moving, up and about, serving, seeking, speaking a good word for the Master. Faith needs action, but action that expresses the essence of its nature.
- Faith is not stationary. It moves always forward toward its goal. It seeks maturity, growth, progress for self and for others, Philippians 1:25; Titus 1:1. And for the body of Christ. Faith has a goal: the salvation of souls, 1 Peter 1:9.
- Faith is not solitary. It seeks company, Philippians 1:27. It is not heartless, but loving and ever seeks to express that love. Paul spoke of "the faith you share with us" Philemon 6. We hold it in common, Jude 3.

Just as there are gospels that are no gospel at all, Galatians 1:6-9, there are also faiths that are no faith. But there is only one saving faith, James 2:14. We can opt for any number of faiths. But only one will get us into the presence of God and into the eternal abode where the faithful will live forever.
